YOUTH POWER

Energy Camp

For nearly 25 years, Oklahoma's rural electric cooperatives have been sending the state's brightest junior high students to YouthPower Energy Camp, and now it's your turn! Imagine spending four days of your summer swimming, hiking, riding go-carts, and making new friends. You will improve your leadership skills and learn about one of our country's important industries...rural electrification.

Join us at Canyon Camp near the beautiful Red Rock Canyon just south of Hinton, OK, where you'll experience first-hand the exciting world of rural electricity: watch safety demonstrations, climb a pole, watch a co-op crew at work, as well as have some awesome outdoor summer fun!

COURTESY OF OKLAHOMA'S RURAL ELECTRIC COOPERATIVES

Social Media Contract for Energy Camp Participants

Name: _____ Cooperative: Kay Electric Cooperative

Social media, such as Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, Snapchat, YouTube, personal texting, and others, are powerful tools of communication that can have significant impact on your personal reputation as well as the reputations of the cooperative you are representing, Kay Electric Cooperative (KEC) and Oklahoma Association of Electric Cooperatives (OAEC).

Your parent/guardian and you must read and sign this contract acknowledging personal responsibility to use social media responsibly as a cooperative representative, and a representative of KEC on the OAEC Energy Camp. Please adhere to the following rules and guidelines when posting on Social Media sites while on Energy Camp or thereafter concerning Energy Camp.

- Think twice before posting. Privacy does not exist in the world of social media. Even if you think the information will disappear after a few hours, an image, with your name attached, can last a lifetime. Consider what could happen if a post becomes widely known and how that may reflect on your reputation, the reputation of your family and friends, the reputation of your cooperative, KEC. Moreover, the information you place online could jeopardize your future when applying to college or for a job for years after Energy Camp.
- Always be authentic. Be honest about your identity. If you post personally or use an Energy Camp hashtag, make sure you are being a positive representative of your cooperative, KEC an OAEC Energy Camp.
- When posting on social media while on Energy Camp, you will not be disrespectful, disingenuous, inappropriate, or offensive.
- Never pretend to be someone else when you post personally or as a Energy Camp representative.
- Be respectful and thoughtful. Energy Camp participants are committed to showing respect and dignity for all people and to the civil and thoughtful discussion of opposing ideas. Treat others the way you would like them to treat you on social media sites.
- Know the rules. Become familiar with the terms of service and policies of the social media sites and networks in which you participate and the appropriate code of ethics required for responsible online communications.
- If you have a question about something you want to post, please ask a camp leader.

Students who engage in inappropriate use of social media sites, including electronic text, may be required to remove all posts in question from social media sites, be required to show camp leaders their social media sites when asked or be sent home at the expense of their parent(s), or be subject to any other actions that may be appropriate or required based on the circumstances.

These guidelines and rules are non-negotiable and the consequences are dependent on the degree of misuse of social media.
